To whom it may concern –

I am writing this letter as a commitment of Asia Society's formal and full support of Putting Learner Success First: A Shared Vision for the Future of CTE, and in particular, the five key guiding principles of this vision, namely:

- All CTE programs are held to the highest standards of excellence
- All learners are empowered to choose a meaningful education and career
- All learning is personalized and flexible
- All learning is facilitated by knowledgeable experts
- All systems work together to put learner success first

Asia Society is committed to taking steps to align existing and future work and initiatives to help advance this vision as well as publicly supporting and promoting the accomplishment of the vision's aspirations. Asia Society is particularly committed to advancing these specific actions as they align with our vision, mission and current work to:

- Advance global competency as a way to engage CTE students and prepare them for success in a global economy.
- Create a set of tools and resources (including an online professional development course) to assist CTE educators in integrating the global workforce readiness skills into their classrooms.

Sincerely,
