

To whom it may concern –

I am writing this letter as a commitment of [my organization's] formal and full support of Putting Learner Success First: A Shared Vision for the Future of CTE, and in particular, the five key guiding principles of this vision, namely:

- All CTE programs are held to the highest standards of excellence
- All learners are empowered to choose a meaningful education and career
- All learning is personalized and flexible
- All learning is facilitated by knowledgeable experts
- All systems work together to put learner success first

Family, Career and Community Leaders of America, Inc. (FCCLA) is committed to taking steps to align existing and future work and initiatives to help advance this vision as well as publicly supporting and promoting the accomplishment of the vision's aspirations. FCCLA is particularly committed to advancing these specific actions as they align with our vision, mission and FCCLA members' interests:

- Holding all work of FCCLA Programs and Competitive Events to the highest standards of excellence
- Providing all members with exploration of meaningful education and careers
- Provide personalized educational opportunities through FCCLA programmatic work
- Provide professional development for FCS educators to maintain expertise
- Create and maintain systems that put our member's learning success a priority

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Sandy Spavone". The signature is written in a cursive style.

Sincerely,

Sandy Spavone
Executive Director